Chapter 1 by YOLOSWAG

In a country that is near north pole, there is a city called Coverside. On the south side of the city on 29th CONGAR st., there is a very popular farm that sales delicious potatoes and healthy pigs. In the farm, lives a mom and a son named Jack, the dad is working at another country. In their farm, they know a pig that is super sporty because it rans almost 10 laps around the cage every day and eat twice more then other pigs so Mom knows that someday, the pig will get into big trouble and she called it Athlete.

20 days has past, on a cold, sunny and the sky is blue day, everyone is very happy about one thing, which is…Christmas! On that day, Jack's mom had killed a big pig and pulled some big potatoes from the ground to celebrate. Then before dinner, they went to a mall and bought some gifts and other food to celebrate. While they are gone, Athlete the pig began to crawl over the fence of the cage and got outside. When it is outside, it start to rammed into the house and destroying everything, it ruined the dinner, it broke the TV, it eat the snakes and at last, it rammed into a table with OIL on it! The floor is made out of wood and the heater is on, so the house is on fire! Athlete ran out of the house, jump over the fence and stayed in one spot not moving. When the fire almost burned the whole house, pigs started to ran into others because
